Pended Items:

06-01 Interurban Building Update

Mr. Jarvis, Mr. Garvin and the Mayor met with the Representatives of the Fairfield Eastland Career Center to show them pictures of the work that the students had done for us and complimented their work. It was a true win-win situation.

The interurban building also received some benches that were sponsored by businesses and individuals and they will have a plaque on them to commemorate the sponsors and thank you notes will be sent with pictures of the plaques on the benches. Some of the sponsors include Bob McDorman, James Wynkoop, Canal Banking Center, Hartman's, Madison Township and South Central Power.

09-05 Town Hall Windows Update

Mayor Ebert stated that this issue is still on hold waiting for authorization from the Ohio Historical and Preservation Organization. Mr. Peoples continues to work through this process. Discussion ensued.

New Items for Discussion

09-06 Discussion of Alternative logo designs for MSCW

Mr. Jarvis presented four options for alternative logo designs for Main Street Canal Winchester. See attached. Discussion ensued regarding the designs.

Old Business:

Mr. Garvin stated that Christmas in the Village went extremely well. The attendance was greater than last year. Each year something new has been added to the event (popcorn machine, Gingerbread house contest, train rides) making it bigger and better. This is a great event that is changing and growing. Many businesses took part and did very well over the two days. It is a great partnership between Main Street Canal Winchester and the Village. We look forward to next year!

Mr. Note stated that the Guernsey Bank is currently the owner of the Davis Paints property at Trine / Waterloo. In November they approached Landmarks seeking permission to demolish the building so that the cleared lot would be more marketable, but it was tabled because of missing paperwork. They will be back to Landmarks in December. Mr. Note suggested that some conditions be set along with approval; level it to the ground and put in some green space. Discussion ensued.

Mr. Jarvis stated that this will be his last Old Town meeting and he has really enjoyed serving on this committee.

Adjournment:

Mrs. Rush-Ekelberry moved to adjourn this meeting of the Old Town Committee and was seconded by Mr. Deeds.

VOTE: AYES: Mr. Jarvis, Mrs. Rush-Ekelberry, Mr. Deeds

NAYS:

Motion carried.

Meeting adjourned at 6:38pm
